TO MINING MEN.

All information in regard to mining developments will be thankfully received by H. N. Maguire, local reporter for the Record, up to Saturday noon of each week. The mines are so far apart, and it is so distant to some of them, that it is impracticable to personally visit them all each week. We hope we will be obliged in this matter.

FUN IN THE DISTRICT COURT.—Yesterday forenoon, in the final argument of the motion for an injunction in Raymond & Ely vs. Pioche Phenix, the vigorous closing remarks of Judge Bishop, for the defense, were altogether too amusing for some of the spectators to contain themselves. They had to applaud; and thereupon the disinterested auditors were treated with a rendition of the following serio-comic drama without charge, all the actors being as well up in their parts in the impromptu performance as if they had rehearsed a dozen times:

His Honor—Mr. Clerk, call the Sheriff. (Sheriff appears.) Mr. Sheriff, find out who those men are who applauded.

First Citizen—I am one, your honor.

His Honor—Mr. Clerk, enter a fine against him of $25.

Second Citizen—I am another, your honor.

His Honor—Fine him $25, too.

Friendly Attorney—Your honor, I hope these fines will be remitted; the gentleman, First Citizen, (throwing down a check)—No, I don't want to apologize; I'll pay the fine; take out the fine of my friend, too.

Second Citizen—No, I'll be d—d if you do; we haven't done anything to be fined or to apologize for.

His Honor—You are remanded to the custody of the Sheriff, sir.

Second Citizen—I am ready to go to prison.

To break the tedium of dry legal proceedings these little side diversions are ever welcomed by disinterested spectators, and on this occasion even affected the gravity of the bar and court officers; but as the zest of such performances consists mainly in the tone and style of the performers, the best part is lost in the re-production. All got their money's worth but the fine payers.

RECREATION.—One of the most elegant and sumptuous suppers ever spread in the State of Nevada some of the attaches of the Record office participated in the enjoyment of at the Star Restaurant, Main street, night before last. In glancing alone the heavily and richly laden tables, with their variety of fruits, confectioneries and other delicacies, and detailing the choice edibles and wines in the back ground, we could scarcely realize that hundreds of miles intervened between us and the great markets of the world. The Star is becoming deservedly popular among those who appreciate good living. Mr. and Mrs. Stansfield are not excelled as caterers for the public.

A SPECIMEN OF A NUMEROUS CLASS.—A seedy looking individual, but a man of unexceptionable muscular development, came limping up to Mr. Fulk, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, the other day, and asked for a permit to enter the County Hospital. Surveying the applicant from head to foot in bewilderment, Mr. Fulk demanded to know the ground of the request. "Why, yer see," replied he, "the nail of one of my toes has grown in and under so I can't walk hardly, so I can't." Such cases, we are told, are not infrequent.

SPECIAL VENUE ISSUED.—The case of the State against Robert White, indicted for assault with a deadly weapon, came on for trial in the District Court yesterday afternoon, but the regular panel was exhausted without obtaining a jury, there being but eleven jurors present. A special venire was issued for thirty-six more, returnable to-day at 11 o'clock.

INDIAN GOODS ARRIVED—THEIR WORTHLESS CHARACTER.

A train of annuity goods for the Indians arrived yesterday forenoon. The savages will certainly receive, or be offered all they are entitled to of these goods, for if what we inspected is a sample of the whole lot, we don't believe any one but a wretched, naked Indian would accept them as a free gift. The blankets are made from the very refuse of the woolen factory, are scarcely close enough in texture to hold oats, and wouldn't be used by white men for horse blankets. We are satisfied the original cost could not have been over two dollars a pair, and intrinsically they are not worth as much as it has cost to bring them here. If this is the kind of civilizing influence we are to exert in dealing with the aborigines, the best hope in their behalf of the philanthropist must be for their early extinction. Such treatment is outrageous and disgraceful to the Government. The goods are consigned to "Z. R. Cobleigh, Pioche." The Indians are clamoring for their goods, but Acting Agent Ingalls should peremptorily decline to receive them if they are all as worthless as the portion we saw. We will guarantee him against censure if he will send on to Washington and hang up in the capitol for public inspection, properly labeled, a sample of those flimsy patches of leg wool called blankets. If we propose to pay the Indians for giving up their hunting grounds, let us do so. We may refer to this subject again.

THE SANITARY CONDITION.—The sanitary condition in Pioche is now very satisfactory. We do not know of a single case of illness of a serious character. The truth is there is no healthier locality on the coast than this, notwithstanding that we have somehow got the reputation abroad of being in a region of fatal atmospheric impurities. Fully fifty per cent. of the deaths which have occurred here in the last year have resulted from dissipation and neglect in the first stages of disease. People cannot expect to safely pass through the acclimating period in any country without some attention to sanitary laws. We are glad they are at last learning this in Southeastern Nevada.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judgment was rendered by his Honor yesterday on the motion for injunction in Raymond & Ely Mining Co. vs. Pioche Phenix do., sustaining the same, defendant being enjoined pending the trial of the right of property; but plaintiff is required to give an indemnity bond in the sum of $10,000. All the legal points involved in the pending case were doubtless discussed and passed on in the injunction adjudication.

MR. FORD AGAIN.—Mr. Ford, the obstinate witness, was yesterday afternoon again brought up before Justice Stoutenburgh, for the severalth (copy-righted) time, to see whether his tongue had yet acquired volubility; but it was still as voiceless as the embalmed Pharaoh received a few weeks ago at the British Museum. Recommended for twenty-four hours more. [To be continued.]

INCIDENT PNEUMONIA—FIRST SYMPTOMS.—Sleeping on the sidewalks or curled up in goods boxes in a state of intoxication. It usually gives employment to the grave-diggers, but times are improving now and we think it unnecessary to resort to such extreme measures to enlarge the field of honest labor.

LIBERAL REWARD OFFERED.—District Attorney Goldthwaite has caused posters to be circulated offering a reward of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who killed Charles Swanson, in this city, on the 29th of last December.

DECLINE IN FLOUR.—There has been a slight decline in flour. A great deal came in yesterday from Southern Utah. There are immense quantities in store in the city. If there was any effort to make a corner in consequence of the epizootic, it has certainly failed.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY.—Our enterprising Postmaster, H. M. Barnes, has just received extensive additions to his circulating library and stock of stationery. The former now embraces all the popular works of the day, and the latter almost everything.

EPIZOOTIC EXCITEMENT SUBSIDING.—A letter just received by a Pioche firm from Durant & Cutting, Salt Lake City forwarders, says: "Have no uneasiness about transportation. The horse disease is light, and will soon be all over."

A FINE LODGING HOUSE.—J. Wagner is the proprietor of one of the neatest and best regulated lodging-houses in Pioche; and his terms are not unreasonable, either. It is opposite the Star Restaurant, upper Main street.

PRIVATE SCHOOL.—The consequence of the trouble in our district school over the admission of an African youth is the establishment of a private institution, which, we are told, is being well filled with seceders.

THE REPORTED SUCCESS OF NEW SMELTING WORKS IN WALLAPPI DISTRICT, ARIZONA, has revived interest in that direction. There may be another stampede. Some citizens talk of organizing an expedition.

MAIN STREET WAS CROWDED WITH FREIGHT TRAINS YESTERDAY. If importations continue to increase as they have this week we will have to open a shipping department.

ARRIVAL OF PRODUCE.—Large quantities of produce arrived yesterday from San Pete, Utah—potatoes, eggs, butter, etc. Our markets are well supplied.

REGULAR MAILS PROMISED.—Postmaster Barnes informs us that he does not think the horse disease will prevent the regular arrival of the mails.

MINE TIMBERS.—A large amount of heavy timbers for the Panacea mine passed up Main street yesterday.

N. W. INGALLS, brother of George W., is the acting agent of the Indians in Southeastern Nevada.

An enterprising painter in town is executing a mammoth business directory, to be suspended in the post-office.

STRETCHING THE RULES.—The laws of paraphrase scarcely permit the written ideas of another to be appropriated by merely making such changes as will adapt them to similar circumstances in a different latitude. In a recent number of the San Francisco Call a humorous article was localized which originally appeared in the New York papers over twenty years ago, when they were discussing the adoption of a new code.

TO ARRIVE.—Passengers who left Hamilton yesterday, by stage, to arrive today, are as follows: Jan. Wells, E. F. Taylor, wife and two children; Wm. S. Lee.

GRAIN RECEIVED.—Boone & Dolman, yesterday, received from Salt Creek, Utah, several wagon loads of oats and barley.

JAMES CRONAN received a large invoice of flour yesterday, best brand.

Who is interested in Geo. C. Johnston's advertisement?

WEATHER continues disagreeably cold.
